Claims 7 & 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is not clear if the connector referred to in claim 7, is the same as the quick replacement connector of claim 1.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 6, & 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Deak.

Deak shows a loader for paintballs, including a cartridge 6 having a chamber for paintballs, and an outlet 5a, and having flow assistor 70 with motive means 60. The cartridge is connectable to paintball marker 110 having a paintball inlet or base 130 by means of connector 5, which may be considered a "quick replacement connector", since the connection could be performed arbitrarily quickly; the claim does not define structure of the "quick replacement connector" beyond that shown by Deak.

Claims 13 & 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Perrone.

Perrone shows a paintball loader, mounted to base 22, including a cartridge 24 having a chamber for paintballs and an outlet 32, and a pressurizing member 72 which maintains a force on paintballs to urge the balls toward the outlet, and which contacts a plurality of balls simultaneously. The connection of 32 and 22 may be considered a "quick replacement connector", since the connection could be performed arbitrarily quickly; the claim does not define structure of the "quick replacement connector" beyond that shown by Perrone.

Claims 21-36 are allowed.

Claims 3-5, 9-12, & 15-18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim 8 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
